

You simply take a note in the scale and build the triad, by taking every other note in the scale to stack on top.

In C Major, if we start with the F (4th note of the scale) and choose the next two notes from the scale by skipping, we get F A and C. FAC, would build a F Major triad. That would be considered the IV chord.