

Triads are a combination of 3 notes that sound together to help create harmony.

There are 4 types of triads and a triad can be built starting on any note in our musical alphabet.