

A Whole step is measured as the distance between two pitches that skip a half step, or combining 2 halves to make a whole, like in math.

Referring back to our chromatic scale, C (skip C#) to D is a whole step. E (skip F) to F# is a whole step.