For example, If we are playing a I triad, and we have the 3rd of the triad, we know that we have to lower the pitch a little for it to sound in tune.

If we are playing the 3rd of the V triad, we know that that note "tends" to resolve to the root of the key.